

Sensorial

This area develops the whole body as a receptor and builder of information. Sensorial materials introduce descriptive language: size, weight, depth, proportion, length, balance, scents, textures, color, gradation, sounds and classification of different mediums. Materials are grouped in units of 10 for pre-math skills.